Orbit Tech Solutions - Employee Handbook

Contents: welcome, values, working hours, onboarding, benefits, absences, escalation, attendance, notice period, safety.

Welcome

Welcome to Orbit Tech Solutions. This handbook helps new employees settle in during the first months.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Our Values

We value curiosity, ownership and honest communication. Teams are encouraged to share knowledge openly.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Working Hours

Core working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday, with a one-hour lunch break. This makes a standard week of 40 hours.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Onboarding

New employees receive a laptop, an access card and a buddy who answers day-to-day questions during the first month.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Benefits

Employees receive health insurance, a learning allowance and subsidised meals at the office cafeteria.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Recording Absences

Absences are recorded by the employee in the HRMS portal on the same day. Unplanned absences must be reported to the manager by 10:00 AM.

Managers approve or reject each absence entry within 24 hours.

Escalation Process

Level 1: raise the issue with your immediate manager, who responds within 2 working days. Level 2: escalate to the department head, who responds within 3 working days.

Level 3: submit the issue to the HR grievance committee, which responds within 5 working days.

Training

Each employee has a yearly learning plan agreed with their manager. Training sessions are announced on the intranet.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Performance Reviews

Performance is reviewed twice a year through a self-review followed by a manager discussion.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Attendance Calculation

Attendance percentage = days present / working days x 100. A half-day counts as 0.5 day and attendance is taken from the biometric entry records.

Employees must maintain at least 90% attendance in every quarter.

Resignation and Notice Period

Confirmed employees must serve a notice period of 60 days. Employees on probation must serve a notice period of 15 days.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

IT Support

Raise IT tickets through the service desk. Typical response time is one working day.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Business Travel

Travel must be approved in advance. Economy class is used for flights shorter than six hours.

This section is provided for general guidance. Employees should read it together with the other parts of this document and ask their manager when anything is unclear.

Emergency Procedure

In an emergency dial the security desk on extension 100. Leave the building by the stairs and never use the lifts.

Gather at Assembly Point B in the car park, where floor wardens will take a roll call.